DIFFERENT AWARENESS PROGRAM BY THE NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (NSS)

The National Service Scheme (NSS) students of Government General Degree College Nakashipara take the initiative to enhance social awareness among the residents of rural areas through comprehensive door-to-door campaigns. By engaging directly with households, we strive to educate communities on critical issues such as hygiene, education, and women's empowerment. This personalized approach ensures that the information is accessible and relatable, fostering a more informed and cohesive society.

Additionally, we are committed to promote healthier lifestyles by organizing diverse health check-up programs within the adopted village. These programs offer vital medical services, including general health screenings, and eye examinations. By providing these essential services locally, we reduce barriers to healthcare access and encourage early detection and prevention of illnesses. Our holistic approach not only addresses immediate health concerns but also empowers residents with the knowledge and resources to maintain their well-being long-term. Together, these initiatives aim to build a healthier, more aware, and resilient rural community.

INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY (VASHA DIBOS)

International Mother Language Day (Vasha Dibos), celebrated on February 21st, emphasizes the importance of linguistic and cultural diversity. This day originated from the 1952 Bengali Language Movement in Bangladesh, where students sacrificed their lives for the recognition of their mother tongue, Bangla. A lecture on this occasion typically highlights the significance of preserving and promoting native languages amidst globalization and cultural homogenization.

The lecture often discusses the impact of language on identity, culture, and education. It may include case studies of successful language preservation efforts and initiatives to incorporate mother tongues into educational systems. Experts stress that multilingualism fosters cognitive development, social inclusion, and cultural heritage preservation. The lecture aims to inspire communities to take pride in their linguistic heritage and encourage policy-makers to support language diversity. Celebrating this day reinforces the message that every language is a unique cultural treasure deserving of protection and promotion. A few documents related to International Mother Language Day (Vasha Dibos) are attached.
